We're still trying to figure this one out. Is it a bar? Is it a lounge? Is it a restaurant? Whatever it is it seems to work, probably because it's a bit of everything and somehow the mix works. There's a "warm" and romantic dining area; a separate lounge area with couches and a fireplace for more intimate conversation; and a bar area for people to mingle. "Grazing food." "Can't beat the martinis."

SPEC: Special martinis $5.50-$12.50; Single barrel bourbons $5.50-$12.50; Grilled chicken w/sundried tomatoes $9.95 Baked chicken sushi roll $9.95
